Warriors Split Weekend Games, Lose Two Starting Players

Injuries Knock Out Proffitt, Lilley As Locals Lose To Kahoks, Beat Rams

Granite City's basketball Warriors, plagued by injuries, lost an important Southwestern Conference game to the Collinsville Kahoks Friday night 89-50, then defeated the Shelbyville Rams in a non-conference Saturday night battle 68-36.

The weekend was a costly one for the Warriors. They lost starters Jim Proffitt, a 6-0 guard, and Larry Lilley, 6-2 leading scorer, to injuries. Both are seniors.

Proffitt was sidelined early in the second quarter of the Collinsville game here when his bother-knee "locked." He has undergone operations on the knee and sat out the latter part of last season. Coach Andy Sullivan said Proffitt is "probably" finished for the season.

Lilley suffered a sprained right wrist at Shelbyville at the start of the final period. He was attempting to block a shot on a Shelbyville fast break when he was caught in a pile-up. At first, it was believed the shooting hand wrist was broken but x-rays proved negative. He will be out of action indefinitely.

Proffitt, a valued playmaker, had been slowed by the knee this season but averaged 8.7 points a game. Lilley, the main offensive threat, was averaging 19 points per game.

Pouls, Fouls, Fouls
The Granite City loss Friday night put the Warriors in third place in Southwestern standings with a 4-2 record. Belleville took over second at 5-2 and Collinsville is first at 7-0.

The Kahoks ranked No. 1 in the state and now owners of a 15-0 overall record, jumped ahead quickly against the Warriors in a game marred by 57 fouls.

Helped by nine successful free shots, the Kahoks went out 25-6 in the first quarter. In the second quarter—the only period in which they didn't score 25 points—the Kahoks outscored the Warriors 14-11.

Coach Vergil Fletcher's team dimmed the free throw abolition by sinking 19 in the fourth quarter for a total of 39. The Warriors, meanwhile, totaled 14 free shots, including 13 field goals, to lead the Kahoks. Of those, 17 came in the third quarter and the 6-5 all-star played only a few moments of the fourth period.

Different At Shelbyville
While the Warriors had 35 fouls against Collinsville, they made only 17 at Shelbyville and hung on to defeat the scrappy Rams.

Shelbyville jumped away to an early lead and by halftime led 35-23. The Warriors, refusing to let the lead slip in the third quarter, tied the score 47-47.

Before he was hurt, Lilley peppered the Rams with 15 points. The Warriors held on for the four-

Defeat Edwardsville 84-66

Big Week Ahead For Madison Club

A big week in Midwestern Conference play awaits the Madison Trojans who warm up for the crucial league action by defeating Edwardsville's Tigers 84-66 on Friday night.

The Trojans, leading the conference with a 4-0 record, are playing the scoring was another top Tigers tomorrow night and then go to Cahokia Friday night for a game with the neighboring Comanches.

Dupo has a 1-4 league mark but Cahokia is unbeaten in two contests. Overall, Dupo stands 3-10, Cahokia is 9-3 and Madison is 10-3.

Sophomore Paul Lusk and senior Cecil Bell played stellar roles in winning at Edwardsville. Between them, they scored 36 points and grabbed 28 rebounds.

Both Score 18
Both had 18 markers while Lusk took 16 rebounds and Bell 12. In scoring was another soph, Dale Wright, who hit 17 points.

With Hayes Turner hitting 14

Weslin Wins 71-76

A pair of hot-shooting brothers combined to deal the Venice Red Devils their first Madison-Clinton-Macoupin Conference defeat Friday night as Weslin took a 71-67 decision in three overtimes at Trenton.

Dave and Bob Brede, both guards, hit six from the top of the key and totaled 44 of Weslin's 71 points. Bob, a junior, scored 24 and brother Dave, a senior, hit 20. Both had eight free throws.

And Bob's sharp eye at the free throw line was the major factor as he made 10 of 11.

Weslin went ahead 67-45 with 28 seconds remaining. Then Venice missed a layup and Brede was fouled by Paul Sifton, who committed his fifth personal to be disqualified.

Bob sank both free throws and virtually clinched the victory. Bill Getz hit a goal for Venice but then Brede made a jump shot to tie the score before time expired for the final period.

Sifton Heads Rebounders
Before fouling out, Sifton grabbed 23 rebounds and sparked Venice to a 58-46 advantage in that department. He also pumped in 12 points.

Rich Essington, a freshman, again paced the Venice scoring with 21 points, followed by Mike Edwards, 16. Edwards also pulled off 11 rebounds.

Regulation time ended with the scores 58-58. That tied the count after the first overtime as Venice took the tipoff and controlled the ball until the final 15 seconds. The Devils got a free shot but it was missed and Weslin also missed its first shot.

Both teams scored four points in the second overtime, with Weslin taking the lead 64-60 of the period. Venice hit 34% from the field in the game and Weslin 47% although the Devils actually led in field goals, 27-23.

Valmeyer At Venice
The setback sent Venice into second place in the MCM standings with a 3-1 record while Weslin is in a jump to end up with a 4-1 mark. Weslin has a 4-3 league record.

Coach Bill Olenford's Devils took a break from conference activity tomorrow night when Valmeyer's Pirates call at the Venice gymnasium. Venice downed Valmeyer 68-51 in the St. Paul tournament.

On Friday night, the Devils take on Aviston's Eagles, last-place team in the conference. Then on Tuesday night, Jan. 28, the locals go to Bunker Hill for a crucial contest.

Venice's junior varsity team also lost to Weslin in a thriller, 52-51. Terry Cooper ended up with 17 points. Denny Hill and Roger Schaffner 10 for the Little Devils.

Tall Sumner Downs Rams Again 45-40

Lincoln's Rams, beaten by St. Louis Sumner 45-40 at Venice Friday night, take to the road tomorrow night and will seek their second victory at Red Bud.

The Rams' second success has been elusive. The first came on Dec. 13 against Lovejoy but the Venice school has since lost four games. The Rams have a 1-7 season record.

Playing against the much taller Bulldogs Friday night, the Rams resorted to ball control—a tactic which nearly gave them an upset over St. Louis Vashon in the previous game.

We had to try to minimize their height advantage," explained Coach Stan Lynch.

Height is right. The Bulldogs' starting lineup consisted of 6-8 George Moore, 6-6 Lee Smith, 6-6 Thomas Gordon, 6-4 Gregory Moore and 6-5 Willie Jenkins. The tallest Lincoln player is 6-1 Richard Jackson.

Moore, described by Lynch as "the greatest tip-in man I've seen," was used sparingly since Coach Lynch's month. He tallied eight points.

Leading Sumner was Glorvyn Thompson in 17 points. Jackson hit 14 and Calvin Dixon 13 for Lynch's team.

In the junior varsity game, Sumner pulled to within two points in the fourth quarter but couldn't quite catch the Bulldogs. The game was in marked contrast to the Dec. 5 contest between the teams when Sumner grabbed a 78-52 triumph.

In the junior varsity game, Sumner took a 38-33 decision. High for Lincoln were Ralph Madison and David Isaac with eight points each.

Prather Cagers Can't Overtake Roxana Five

Roxana jumped ahead of Prather 33-19 at the half Thursday afternoon and went on to win the ninth grade contest 60-52 at the Prather gymnasium.

Coach Roger Davis said Hartford won the game. The Prather team was too much to overcome.

Dan Partney scored 20 points. Don Hains hit 12 and Mike Barnhart scored 10. Prather had six each for Prather. Missing from the lineup was high-scoring Jim Starnes, who is recovering from a bout with flu.

Prather won the eighth grade game 30-20 as Roger Coakley scored 16 points. Prather overcame a 14-11 halftime edge held by Roxana.

GC Wrestlers Snare 5th Conference Win

Granite City high school wrestlers picked up their 10th victory in 11 dual meets this season by taking a 28-14 decision Friday afternoon at Belleville.

The triumph over the Maroons was also the Warriors' fifth southwestern conference victory without a setback.

Coach Bill "Red" Schmitt had four regular front-liners out of action for a variety of reasons. Among them was 138-pounder Jim Vallejo who was nursing a rib injury suffered in the recent Carl Sandburg Quadrangle at Orland Park.

First Meeting To Explore Bi-State Planning Jan. 23

The first meeting of Illinois and Missouri bi-state area representatives to explore the possibilities of unified planning and prepare an outline of procedure will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 23, in the office of the Bi-State Development Agency in St. Louis.

Initially proposed at an area conference Nov. 19, since then a committee of 12, six from each state, has been established to develop a suggested program of cooperation. Such a program must have unanimous endorsement of all concerned. It was agreed at the November meeting.

As explained at that time, the need for bi-state area planning cooperation is due to the 1962 Federal Highway Act which prohibits spending of federal funds in urban areas of 50,000 or more after July 1, 1965, unless there is a comprehensive and continuing regional plan in process. Since federal funds pay for 80% of most highway construction, without the required coordinating for the bi-state area, highways could be built on either side of the river after the deadline.

The metropolitan area for which comprehensive planning is necessary, as defined by the Federal Highway Act, includes Madison, St. Clair and Monroe counties in Illinois, and the city of St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Charles and Jefferson counties in Missouri. This is an area of approximately 3,000 square miles, with a population of 2.1 million and 750 separate taxing jurisdictions.

Illinois governmental agencies and their appointees to the joint planning committee are: Gilbert Killinger, Madison county supervisor; Leo R. Chermakoffmann, St. Clair county supervisor; Raymond Ruppelmeier sr., Monroe county supervisor; George Washington, Southwestern Illinois Council of Mayors; T. H. Mike-

St. Louis Labor Stand On Highway Funds, Planning

The St. Louis Labor Council, AFL-CIO, has just issued the following statement expressing its hope that the metropolitan area will comply with revised federal regulations so that its highway construction funds are not jeopardized.

"The attached resolution was adopted by the delegates of the St. Louis Labor Council, AFL-CIO, and represents our concern of compliance with federal regulations in relation to our highway needs of the future.

"The wisdom of cooperation in the planning of roads and highways cannot be disputed, as the future flow of traffic depends on the planning of roads and highways to do so only if requirements are complied with.

"We commend it to the heads of our various agencies and directors of our various departments with roads and highways, and urge their cooperation in a much needed unified approach.

"RESOLUTION

"Since the 1955-56 fiscal year, over $218,000,000 has been spent on federal highway improvements in St. Louis city and St. Louis county, an estimated one-third of which was provided by federal grants-in-aid. The Missouri State Highway Department has scheduled the construction or has under contract the construction of 100 federal highway projects for the current fiscal year beginning July 1, 1963, of which approximately two-thirds will be paid for by federal grants-in-aid.

"Every resident of every city, town and village in the entire metropolitan area has benefited from this expenditure and will continue to do so only if requirements are complied with.

"The Federal Aid Highway Act of 1962 requires that after July 1, 1965, all federal highway projects in metropolitan areas such as Greater St. Louis must be based on a 'continuing comprehensive transportation planning process carried out cooperatively by states and local communities.' This means that a comprehensive coordinated program is mandatory covering St. Louis-St. Louis county and adjacent St. Louis counties in Missouri and Illinois.

"Therefore, be it resolved: The St. Louis Labor Council, AFL-CIO, believes that the Bi-State Development Agency is the logical metropolitan organization to coordinate this transportation and development planning process.

"We commend the initiative Bi-State has already taken in establishing a coordinating committee consisting of governmental representatives from communities on both sides of the Mississippi River.

"We urge this committee to take the next steps necessary to prepare the study outline and legal agreements for appropriate local governments to enter into, so that all governments in the metropolitan area remain eligible for federal grants-in-aid to highway and other federal programs."

Reminder Is Issued On Winter Driving Hazards

In view of the large number of traffic accidents in the Quad-Cities this weekend, safety authorities are calling attention to the special precautions that should be taken for winter driving.

Their advice includes each motorist knowing the best way of stopping and the distance in which he is able to stop in a snow-packed or icy street or road.

"The dangers of winter driving require that a motorist know the abilities of his car to stop under certain conditions," local safety officials comment.

"Drivers must start stopping sooner on ice or snow and must pump their brakes, not jam them. Those with power brakes, which are quicker to apply, must be particularly careful not to jam them.

"Pumping brakes allows the front wheels to roll between applications, which lets the driver keep his steering control. Never use the parking brake to stop under any conditions.

Chains Recommended

"On glare ice, according to tests made under conditions of 20 degrees temperature and car traveling at 20 miles an hour, stopping distance is 11 car-lengths for regular tires, nine car-lengths for snow tires and much less, five car-lengths, for reinforced tire chains.

"Be on guard when the temperature is just about freezing. Wet ice at 30 degrees is twice as slippery as ice at zero degrees. 'Polishing' by heavy traffic makes ice more slippery and dangerous, especially at curves and intersections.

"During these winter months, drivers must follow other cars at safe distances and allow additional distances for stopping on slippery road. They must also slow down when approaching intersections and other locations where an emergency stop may be necessary."

weren't all the facts and plans figured before and brought to the people?

Also, was said we would have men from our city to maintain this plant. At least it was said if any more city jobs go to out-of-town, we should at least have a few let others get on-the-job training.

We have many men in our town who can use these jobs. I say if any more city jobs go to out-of-town, we should at least have a few let others get on-the-job training.

Let's stick to the facts. Aren't the taxpayers a majority in our city at least a year to qualify for a city job?

No more of the person's number of school years, this doesn't decide his type or how he works. When persons aren't hired due to menal agency using property taxes as its guarantee.

The Quad-Cities, in other words, are fast becoming an important factor in river-related freight movements of this region without going into debt and without spending property tax funds. The harbor activity, meanwhile, is generating business, jobs and taxes for this area, with an even greater potential for the future.

Chain Of Rocks Bridge Can Be Of Value In Handling Future Traffic

As Madison officials point out, a number of problems face them in the coming months and years. But the problems do not loom nearly as large now that the city has built up a financial cushion running in excess of two million dollars through its operation of the Chain of Rocks Bridge.

In addition to paying for extensive drainage work, the city expects to devote most of its surplus to the effort to prove continuing yearly income to augment property and sales taxes. The investments will be in the form of cash deposits or industrial plant construction and leasing, or a combination of both.

Fate of the bridge remains uncertain, but it seems likely that it would be of some value to the states despite the presence of a four-lane free bridge nearby. As the Illinois and Missouri metropolitan areas continue to grow, the need will be an increasing demand for arteries to handle the huge traffic volume.

Local Unincorporated Areas Holding Their Own In Construction Of Homes, Businesses

It is interesting to note that local unincorporated areas accounted for 339 or nearly a third of the 1032 building permits issued by Madison county in the year just ended.

Although Chouteau township dropped from 177 permits in 1962 to 150 in 1963, falling from second to third place among the townships, Namooki showed a significant increase from 141 to 184, topping only the 2500 lots.

The county listing reveals the type of growth that is occurring—722 new homes, 168 home additions and garages, eight apartment buildings, 73 commercial and business structures, seven churches, a school and three health centers.

Comparisons from one year to the next can be deceptive because the boundaries of unincorporated areas continue to shift with changes in city limits. But the high growth rate is a testimony to the attractiveness of Madison county as a place to live and work, and it is good to know that the Quad-City area is more than holding its own in this respect.

44 Million Local Telephone Conversations In Past Year

That Quad-Cities are a talkative group is made clear by telephone company records showing that they placed 44,517,000 calls during 1963. This is an average of 121,966 a day, or nearly two each day for every man, woman, child and infant in this community. The daily average was almost five for each of the 25,000 telephone numbers.

Small wonder that, again in 1964, Southwestern Bell is planning further expansion of its intricate network of cables and equipment.

Two factors are compelling the increase in the number of local residents to verbal communications, and the fact that the market for telephone service is continuing its rapid growth: 1000 units were added here last year. The ten-year increase here has been a factor in the growth of the telephone company.

The Press-Record makes and receives so many calls in a week's time that we cannot deny we are contributing to the growth of the telephone company. But records, and logic, show that housewives, with a strong assist from teenagers, play a major part in keeping the telephone lines busy. In this regard, at least, the Quad-Cities are entirely typical.

Standardize Tavern Hours

(Collinsville Herald)

Madison County Sheriff Frank Fraundorf has made a plea that cities standardize hours of operation of taverns in incorporated areas to correspond with the county hours.

Madison and Collinsville are the only two cities in which tavern hours are extended beyond the standard hours of 10 p.m. to midnight and 2 a.m. on Saturdays.

Fraundorf, a former city police chief of Madison, has been accustomed to the problems involved with such extended tavern hours.

Collinsville's Ministerial Alliance has repeatedly asked that the hours in this city be reduced to the county's schedule, a schedule he it lobbied for.

With our taverns permitted to remain open, we draw customers from all over two counties with the possibility of increasing the problems for the local police. The sheriff's office, St. Clair county, East St. Louis is the only holdout permitting taverns to stay open past midnight. In East St. Louis' case back, look out!

Arguments have been voiced by local tavern operators that their revenue would be sharply hit if hours were 1 a.m. and a.m. on Saturdays.

Another argument is that the area track crowd who need after-hours alcoholic relaxation. It isn't good for the community, such late hours are not permitted for the shift-workers. The city is a city of 100,000 people, and it is a city of 100,000 people.

Little consideration has been given to the fact that the city has no high school diploma, this shows discrimination and should be fought as such.

To the Editor:

We all know about the pollution problem to be built in our city by the taxpayers' monthly fee. We don't know how much.

If we get help, as we might with funds to help with this shouldn't our years to pay decrease? Also what about the families move in to out what then happens to the amount and number of years to pay?

We're paying for this project. How about all the facts? If this was as important as said, why

Opportunity For Aggressive Efforts By Both Parties

The eight-day filing period for Madison county offices opens today. As this is being written, it is not known precisely what competition will develop for the April and November balloting.

We would like to be able to report indications that both parties plan aggressive efforts in the primary and general elections and this may yet be the case. But all signs up to now point to another lackadaisical try for county offices by the Republican party.

As has been mentioned here, both political parties and all citizens benefit from genuine competition. But no party, even if aided by strong interest in statewide races, can get very far without reasonably young and active candidates presenting a positive program and convincing the public that they could fill the offices in a responsible manner.

The minority party in Madison county has no place to go but up, for its fortunes have been almost hopelessly low. We suspect that both Democrats and Republicans would like to see it get started on the long road back, encouraging both parties to nominate the best possible candidates.

New Committee Will Spotlight Quad-City Tourist Attractions

Creation of a local Tourist Promotion Committee will aid in concentrating local state funds and generating programs designed to make the most of Quad-City area attractions.

Tourism—including people on vacations, visits and business trips and those attending conventions—is a catalyst for a great deal of direct and indirect economic activity. While not dependent upon it, this community does benefit from tourism and is becoming increasingly able to handle a large volume.

Everyone wishes the new committee well in its efforts, for the entire local community stands to gain.

Principal points of interest in this area include the Chain of Rocks canal and locks, the Granite City harbor, the Lewis and Clark memorials, Indian mounds and the large industrial plants. There are also highly satisfactory facilities for a wide variety of regional meetings that currently are being held elsewhere.

Harbor Facilities Developed Without City Debt Or Taxes

In operation for nearly a decade, the Bi-State Development Agency wharf facilities located at the Chain of Rocks Lock and Harbor have served the needs of midwestern and world shipping firms.

As was brought out at the dedication ceremony marking expansion of the public dock space in this city, this is the only such terminal on the entire Mississippi River system built without issuance of bonds or credit by a local-level government.

Standardize Tavern Hours

(Collinsville Herald)

Madison County Sheriff Frank Fraundorf has made a plea that cities standardize hours of operation of taverns in incorporated areas to correspond with the county hours.

Madison and Collinsville are the only two cities in which tavern hours are extended beyond the standard hours of 10 p.m. to midnight and 2 a.m. on Saturdays.

Fraundorf, a former city police chief of Madison, has been accustomed to the problems involved with such extended tavern hours.

Collinsville's Ministerial Alliance has repeatedly asked that the hours in this city be reduced to the county's schedule, a schedule he it lobbied for.

With our taverns permitted to remain open, we draw customers from all over two counties with the possibility of increasing the problems for the local police. The sheriff's office, St. Clair county, East St. Louis is the only holdout permitting taverns to stay open past midnight. In East St. Louis' case back, look out!

Arguments have been voiced by local tavern operators that their revenue would be sharply hit if hours were 1 a.m. and a.m. on Saturdays.

Another argument is that the area track crowd who need after-hours alcoholic relaxation. It isn't good for the community, such late hours are not permitted for the shift-workers. The city is a city of 100,000 people, and it is a city of 100,000 people.

Little consideration has been given to the fact that the city has no high school diploma, this shows discrimination and should be fought as such.

Almanacs And An Age Of Quackery

BY JOHN W. ALLEN
Southern Illinois University

Months ago an auctioneer crying a sale ready to go on a tattered bundle of papers. He accordingly took it with him and left it with me. In the bundle there was a complete six-year file of family almanacs that began with 1859. There were a few earlier ones, but the bulk of the collection was made up of the 1833. At least one person was delighted.

Almanacs are filled with assorted bits of information, misinformation and glib sales talk. Church days, festive days and other times to be observed are marked. In addition to the random information included there were many wise sayings, proverbs, quotations and oddities. There were many jokes, some so old they sounded new.

Phases of the moon and signs of the zodiac were recorded and sometimes proved true, like hot days in July and August, cold ones for January and February and windy ones for March.

If one conceded the almanacs' three days of variance, accuracy was naturally poor. In fact, miss, weather forecasts were carefully noted and were good. The popular weather talk. Then the U.S. Weather Bureau came to spot.

Another feature common to all of the almanacs was the "Palmistry" or "Palm Reading" section. It was a "patent" medicine and nostrums. There was no limit to the claims for the "patent" medicine and nostrums. It was a "patent" medicine and nostrums. It was a "patent" medicine and nostrums.

Foot Slips Off Brake

As she was backing her auto out of a parking place on the Belemore Village shopping center lot at 6:25 p.m. Thursday, the foot of Pamela A. Sabin, 17, of 12 Moore drive slipped off the brake and the car rolled into a parked auto owned by Homer R. Brown, Pittsfield, Ill.

The left front fender of the Sabins auto and the right rear fender of the Brown car were damaged.

The week of Jan. 20th thru 25th is JAYCEE WEEK in Granite City. The Jaycees are a non-profit group of young men developing leadership qualities while helping improve the community through varied projects. We are an organization stressing fellowship and giving young men a chance to associate with the other young men "on the way up." We co-operate with the City, the Chamber of Commerce and other groups in many ways, but are in no way affiliated with these groups.

THE JAYCEE CREED

WE BELIEVE: That faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life; That the brotherhood of man transcends the sovereignty of nations; That economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise; That government should be of laws rather than of men; That earth's great treasure lies in human personality; And that service to humanity is the best work of life.

People Eating Their Way To False Teeth

(This is the third in a series of six articles on dental health published by the Press-Record in cooperation with the Tri-City Health Week Feb. 5-8.) The American people may well be eating their way toward dentures.

It is known that, for tooth decay to occur, fermentable carbohydrates, such as sugar, must be present in the diet.

It is also known that the annual per capita consumption of sugar in the United States has increased almost ten-fold in the last 125 years.

Need Fibrous Foods

Besides increasing the possibility of tooth decay with the additional sweets, Americans have compounded the problem by almost eliminating all fibrous foods which give more exercise to the chewing muscles and which also serve to help cleanse the tooth surfaces.

Highly-cooked soft foods, furthermore, readily become impacted between the teeth and are more difficult to remove by brushing.

With today's diet of sweet and easy-to-chew foods, more diligent home and professional care is necessary if good dental health is to be maintained.

If this care is not observed then in the future we can expect more than the present estimate in the United States of 97 million persons with tooth decay.

THE BUDGET PLAN

1903 EDISON

TR 7-3450

23 million with gum disease and 21 million with no teeth at all.

Teeth Can Be Permanent

A study conducted by the American Dental Association revealed that a majority of the adult dental patients who were surveyed believed that loss of teeth and wearing of dentures are inevitable.

And yet permanent teeth are meant to be just that—permanent.

But it is not difficult to understand how such ideas about them came into existence. When more than half of the population over 45 years of age is wearing dentures, it would seem reasonable to many children that their dental future is not too bright.

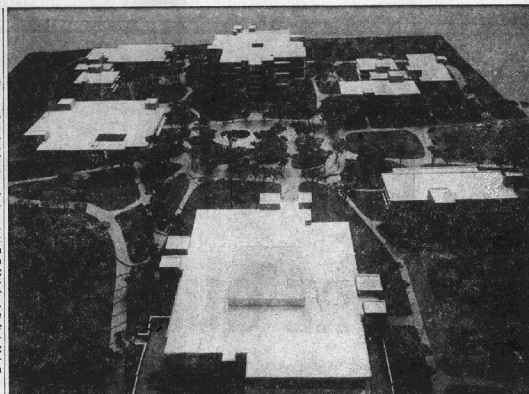

Loss of teeth is not inevitable and to think otherwise and give up dental care for the expectation of dentures is like letting an injured arm become gangrenous because an artificial arm can be substituted.

False Teeth Not As Efficient

Artificial teeth cannot be expected to be as efficient as natural teeth.

If a generation of children and their parents can be made aware of, and convinced of, the vital importance of positive dental health as well as early and regular dental care, knowledge and professional skills can maintain oral tissues in a state of health and function throughout life.

We can save the teeth we have, and the teeth our children will have, if we take care—home and professional.

SOUTHWESTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY campus model which will be displayed Jan. 27 to Feb. 7 in the Granite City Trust & Savings Bank lobby. Bank President Ernest A. Karondjeff said the public is being invited to view the exhibit anytime during the regular banking hours. The initial group of buildings on the university campus consists of (1) the university center, (2) communications building, (3) science laboratory and faculty office building group, (4) library, (5) general classrooms and faculty office building group and (6) the general offices and service building.

Annual Contractor Meet

Dr. Nicholas Nyaradi and Bill Dunn will address the 18th annual dinner meeting of area contractors at 7 p.m. Wednesday at Augustine's restaurant, Belleville. Dr. Nyaradi is director of the Bradley University School of International Studies and former Hungarian minister of finance; Dunn is executive director of the National Associated General Contractors office in Washington, D.C.

Two Released On Bond

Madison police filed disorderly conduct charges Saturday against Louis Kratz and Louis A. Kraus, both of 1014 Iowa street. Each was released on $25 cash bail.

Two Crashes Saturday Night At 111-Pontoon

Northbound autos of James W. Baker, Kaseberg lane, and John Schneider, St. Louis, collided on Route 111 at Pontoon road at 5:45 p.m. Saturday as Baker attempted to turn right.

While Special Deputy Sheriff Merle L. Hensley, 4145 Pontoon road, was directing traffic at the scene at 6 p.m., his auto, with its red light flashing, was struck in the rear by the auto of Paul Hothel, Wood River.

Station Window Broken

A window was found broken out at a service station at Fourth street and McCambridge avenue, Madison, at 8 a.m. Sunday.

Wortman Case Postponed

Trial of Frank "Buster" Wortman on a charge of threatening Collinsville telephone employee was postponed Friday in Springfield, Ill., from today to March 9. The continuance was sought by a defense attorney. The case was transferred from Madison county to Sangamon county on a change of venue to assure a fair trial.

Stolen Auto Found

An auto found abandoned at the end of Harrison street, Eagle Park Acres, was reported at 10 a.m. Sunday by Madison police to state police whose records showed it had been stolen in East St. Louis Jan. 15.

Births Recorded During 1963 In Area Total 1096

There were 85 fewer births and 61 more deaths than 1962 in the Quad-City area last year, according to statistics released by A. L. Stevens, city clerk.
